

Appendix A: Suites at Raffles Singapore

Enhanced suite experience and upgraded interiors

Beyond the interior design, all 115 of the beautifully restored suites at Raffles Singapore are now updated and outfitted with new amenities and state-of-the-art technology to keep up with the needs of discerning travellers while maintaining the sense of space and colonial ambience.

In a nod to its heritage, the suites have retained the mechanical switches that whisper to the hotel's colonial past. The suites have also preserved their colonial architectural splendour, along with the original 14-foot/4-metre ceiling, lofty double-glazed windows, charming verandahs and polished teakwood floors. The ensuite bathrooms have been redesigned with beautiful Victorian details and Peranakan tiles as an homage to Singapore's rich culture and includes pampering amenities, such as luxurious toiletries with a special range for children. Many of the in-room niceties are also custom-made and specially designed for Raffles Singapore.

From the moment they arrive at the hotel, guests will be attended to at all times by the discreet and legendary Raffles Butlers and welcomed with the iconic Singapore Sling. Throughout their stay, the Raffles Butler will take on the role of being the guests' personal assistant, anticipating their every needs and desires and exceeding their expectations. Guests will enjoy a welcome fruit platter, complimentary non-alcoholic minibar which is replenished daily and evening turndown services. Those seeking added privacy can also settle into the comfort of our suites for an intimate in-suite dining experience any time of the day.

Suite categories at Raffles Singapore

Studio Suites

Nestled in the Main Building above the hotel's charming colonial-style Grand Lobby, Raffles Singapore's six Studio Suites invites guests to experience Singapore, the Raffles way. Inspiring 14-foot /4-metre ceilings create a sense of openness and space. Available with a king bed or two queen beds, each suite features a verandah that offers views of the tranquil Palm Garden.

Residence Suites

Located in the Raffles Arcade, the five Residence Suites feature either one or two bedrooms and enjoy private access. An ideal option for guests who seek large spaces during their stay. Each suite comes with a living and dining area, a pantry, an intimate office space, powder room and bedroom. These comfortable homes-away-from-home are named after famous local cinemas from the early to mid-1900s – a tribute to the days when the hotel's neighbourhood was known as "The Place of Cinemas". The names of the suites are Alhambra Suite, Diamond Suite, Marlborough Suite, Odeon Suite and Theatre Royal Suite.

Promenade Suites

A nostalgic tribute to the late 1800s when Raffles faced Singapore's beachfront. Two Promenade Suites are nestled intimately in the front-most corner of the Main Building, overlooking Beach Road. Each suite is named after a prominent female figure of her time in Singapore and features a parlour, dressing room and luxurious bedroom with a king bed. Guests residing here enjoy 24-hour check-in and check-out.

Personality Suites

The 12 Personality Suites are a tribute to renowned guests who have visited Raffles over the last century. Featuring unique memorabilia related to each legendary name in the parlour and bedroom, these suites come with either a king bed or two queen beds. The featured personalities include renowned British playwright and novelist Somerset Maugham, award-winning actress Elizabeth Taylor, iconic British comic actor Charlie Chaplin and more.

Palm Court Suites

True to their name, these 35 suites overlook the verdant Palm Court, a hidden gem at Raffles Singapore reserved privately for guests. Located next to the Main Building in the historic Palm Court wing, each of these superb 5-star suites is an oasis of peace and serenity.

Courtyard Suites

Clustered around the heart of the hotel, all 31 Courtyard Suites provide direct and easy access to the Main Building and many of Raffles' signature facilities. Guests may indulge at Raffles Spa, shop at Raffles Arcade, and then come back to a personal oasis. Stepping from the parlour to the verandah allows guests to admire lush gardens lined with leafy ferns – for a sense of serenity, sheltered from the tropical heat

State Room Suites

Housed in the Bras Basah wing, one of the most historic sections of Raffles Singapore, the State Room Suites have two separate entrances – one leading to the parlour, the other to bedroom. Each spacious suite offers convenient access to the delightful boutiques in Raffles Arcade. Available with a king bed or two queen beds, the suite also features a verandah that overlooks Fern Court.

Grand Hotel Suites

The four Grand Hotel Suites at Raffles evoke all the romance of voyages to unknown lands. Each takes pride of place in the Main Building, and features one or two bedrooms, a spacious living and dining area, a walk-in wardrobe and a private verandah. Guests residing here also enjoy 24-hour check-in and check-out.

RAFFLES
SINGAPORE

Presidential Suites

Named for the most illustrious personalities of the Raffles story, the pair of Presidential Suites are the grandest hotel suites in Singapore. The Sarkies and Sir Stamford Raffles suites are located in the Main Building, overlooking the tranquil Palm Court and the legendary porte-cochère. Architecturally stunning, each comes with its own private verandah. The vast spaces – from the living room to the dining room and the bedrooms – are bedecked with carefully curated antiques and artworks. Functional areas include a walk-in wardrobe and a personal pantry.

For more information on the different suite categories and available amenities, please visit <http://www.rafflessingapore.com/suites/>.

---