Dilmah

SILVER JUBILEE GOURMET

SINCE 1988

Dilmah tea had made a mark with its fresh, single origin, 100% pure Ceylon tea. However, we needed to produce something spectacular to celebrate 25 years infused in the goodness of Dilmah tea. To explore its diverse varieties whilst remaining true to its origins, and giving this 5000 year old herb a touch of the 21st century whilst embracing the time of its ancestors. Introducing the Silver Jubilee Gourmet range, a fitting celebration for the tapestry of tea Dilmah has woven across over two decades.

The good side of afternoon tea is beautiful. The luxurious indulgence in fine tea it offers in its tea inspired metamorphosis is matchless.

In all honesty, once experienced, it's hard to forget. Dilmah Real High Tea is the rebirth of the occasion of afternoon tea, with fine gastronomy, mixology and elegant experience formed around the unique beauty in real tea – the individuality of each tea derived from the influence of its terroir, the sophistication in taste, fragrance, appearance and texture of tea. From different estates, its natural goodness and the expression of these in real high tea. A contemporary celebration of tea with style and substance.
