On Site Audio Visual Team

Having our own in-house team allows us to provide a holistic event production service addressing all of your needs.

With over 60 years of combined experience, our event production team incorporates creative design and the latest technology to provide reliable and all-inclusive AV, lighting, and innovative technical production for your event.

We have a “no-fuss” approach meaning clients simply outline their vision and the team takes care of the “how to”. We will manage all technical and production elements from start to finish with precision and creative flair.
Themeing & Technical Support

- Assistance with scheduling and timelines
- Bump in/out
- Liaising with suppliers
- WH&S management
- Design, management and operation of all technical elements
- Technicians to operate lighting, audio and vision equipment
"HUGE thanks to the head chef. Food was an absolute standout, plentiful and fresh. Overall a stand-out event. Our head of trading spoke to me and said that it was one of the best weekends he has attended. We couldn’t have done it without the wonderful team who were smiley, friendly and ever so willing to help.”

“I just wanted to personally thank you both so much for your help in bringing the Stockland conference to life so seamlessly as you did. What a great team you have - everyone we came into contact with at the Fairmont was friendly, helpful and professional. Anything we threw at you (including all those last minute annoying requests) was done with a smile! Thank you….”

Sample Itinerary

Day One

10:00am As you arrive, listen to the galahs and kookaburras as they welcome you to the World Heritage-listed Blue Mountains.

10:30pm Hop on a privately chartered double-decker Explorer Bus and check out one of the best known landmarks in New South Wales, the Three Sisters.

TOP TIP: Make it an adventure and take the team on a Scenic World discovery as you ride the steepest railway in the world.

2:00pm After check-in, hit the green for an icebreaker and build a sense of team through a golf instruction clinic.

5:00pm Arrive with an appetite after your afternoon of golf and head straight to the lower lake for your relaxed lakeside BBQ and conference agenda update.

“Thank you thank you thank you - couldn’t have a more happier client in me!”
