A Festive Welcome from Our Hotel Manager

Welcome to Mercure Bangkok Sukhumvit 11! As the season lights up the city, we're excited to have you with us. From the moment you arrive, you'll notice our Christmas tree adorned with Pla Ta Pien—a traditional Thai woven fish crafted from palm leaves. It's a local symbol of good fortune, growth, and harmony, and a meaningful way to share a touch of Thai culture with you this festive season.

This time of year is all about togetherness, small joys, and creating moments that stay with you. Whether you're here for a festive getaway or simply to soak in Bangkok's vibrant energy, we invite you to enjoy the warmth, colour, and spirit of the season in your own way—with our team here to make everything feel easy and welcoming.

Wishing you a warm, spirited, and silky festive season.

Warmly,
Jirunthara Chinvaroj, Polly
