

THE ART OF CRAFT

1 8 6 4

In 1864, the Tanjong Pagar Dock Company was founded, marking the beginning of the district's evolution from a fishing village of yore to the urban jungle it is today. We commemorate this important year, and the many changes since, with our stylish bar and tea lounge.

Like Singapore, 1864 constantly evolves. Start your day with a leisurely breakfast while observing the comings and goings of the lobby. Come back at lunchtime for a light meal and refreshing drinks, or take a break from shopping and sightseeing with a decadent late afternoon tea. Our mixologists take over when night falls, serving signature cocktails alongside a vast selection of wine and champagne as well as specially-brewed craft beer until midnight.

Paying tribute to evolution and experience, our menu is an invitation to a journey of the senses. Inspired by fond memories of the past and appreciation of the world around them, our mixologists have carefully crafted a range of cocktails designed to evoke emotion alongside taste – poetry in a glass. Salut!

BEERS

Here,

With my beer

I sit,

While golden moments flit:

Alas!

They pass

Unheeded by:

And, as they fly,

I,

Being dry,

Sit, idly sipping here

My beer.

George Arnold

THE ART OF COCKTAILS

Drink to me only with thine eyes,

And I will pledge with mine;

Or leave a kiss but in the cup,

And I'll not look for wine.

The thirst that from the soul doth rise

Doth ask a drink divine;

But might I of Jove's nectar sup,

would not change for thine.

I sent thee late a rosy wreath,

Not so much honouring thee

As giving it a hope, that there

It could not withered be.

But thou thereon didst only breathe,

And sent 'st it back to me;

Since when it grows, and smells, I swear,

Not of itself, but thee.

Ben Jonson

INSPIRATION

If you think you are beaten, you are;

If you think you dare not, you don't!

If you'd like to win, but you think you can't,

It's almost certain you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost;

For out in the world we find

Success begins with a fellow's will;

It's all in the state of mind!

If you think you're outclassed, you are;

You've got to think high to rise.

You've got to be sure of yourself

Before you'll ever win the prize.

Life's battles don't always go

To the stronger or faster man;

But sooner or later the man who wins

Is the person who thinks he can!

SHRUBS

*Like a shrub among the trees,
I seem to have become attached
To my past,
Roots so deep
They linger poignantly,
In every breath of my leaves.*

*Strive as I may
To reach the sun
And grab the air
My arms fall short
My legs too nimble.
To keep strong,*

*I'll just stand still,
And hold this poise
Till I touch the sky.*

*I will mix me a drink of stars,
Large stars with polychrome needles,
Small stars jetting maroon and crimson,
Cool, quiet, green stars.
I will tear them out of the sky,
And squeeze them over an old silver cup,
And I will pour the cold scorn of my Beloved into it,
So that my drink shall be bubbled with ice.*

Poor stuff! No, Sir, claret is the liquor for boys;

port, for men; but he who aspires to be a hero must drink brandy.

In the first place, brandy is most grateful to the palate;

and then brandy will do soonest for a man what drinking can do for him.

There are, indeed, few who are able to drink brandy.

That is a power rather to be wished for than attained.
