प्राण

/'pra:nə/breath, energy

Every mouthful of our Indian specialty brings a life-giving force to the palates. Prāṇa is the vital energy of life itself. It is the basic material for all that exists.

TURMERIC

This bright yellow spice gives many Indian dishes their characteristic color. Turmeric has properties that can boost brain neurotransmitters, including serotonin and dopamine.

CINNAMON

The oily component of this aromatic spice is very high in cinnamaldehyde, that is responsible for most of cinnamon's powerful effects on health and metabolism.

CUMIN

Cumin has long been used in traditional medicine and is a rich source of iron. It is rich in antioxidants, and has been shown to exhibit anti-microbial and anti-inflammatory properties.

CARDAMOM

Ground cardamom is often used to give tea, curries and rice a flavor boost. This spice has antioxidant properties and has the ability to produce compounds that may help fight cancer cells.

CORIANDER

This Indian ingredient claims to have anti-microbial and anti-fungal properties, and is known to help lower blood pressure, blood sugar levels and cholesterol levels.

GINGER

Ginger is an essential ingredient in Indian cuisine. Research shows that ginger contains hundreds of compounds and metabolites, some of which may contribute to health and healing.
