CITY SCENE

Text by Urasa Chittamvanich

Set in the lively heart of Sapporo's Susukino district—a veritable playground of neon lights, gourmet delights and cultural verve—Mercure Sapporo stands as a business and leisure hotel with a chic European ambience incorporating local influences.

✦ SETTING THE SCENE ✦

The Mercure Sapporo's cosmopolitan charm enveloped me at the moment I stepped inside. The ambience is both inviting and relaxed, with décor influenced by a touch of Parisian sensibility that creates a feeling of place that is both local and international. The check-in procedure was smooth, and I noticed the multinational staff, some of whom could speak Thai quite well. Before I knew it, I was on my way to my guest room.

✦ GETTING COMFORTABLE ✦

Guest rooms at Mercure Sapporo are a harmonious blend of style and function. Each is adorned with sleek furnishing, comfortable bedding and thoughtful touches such as ambient lighting and, in the bathroom with bathtub, fragrant bathroom amenities. The large windows allow for an abundance of natural light and offer a captivating view of the city's ever-changing skyline—in my room, of the Sapporo TV Tower!

I was also extremely impressed with the hotel's charitable activities. A sign in the guest room stated that any items left behind by visitors that still had use would be collected and donated to a suitable charitable organisation instead of being thrown away.

☆ ONE OR TWO QUIBBLES... ☆

During winters the heating mode of the air-conditioning is set by a centrally controlled HVAC system, meaning that guests are unable to adjust it. The hotel recommends turning the air conditioning in your guest room off if you feel too warm and opening the window, but this means that you may be affected by the traffic noises. 🗣️

Lifestyle & Travel Magazine × Mercure Sapporo

We are proud to support Lifestyle & Travel Media Co., Ltd, one of Thailand's most acclaimed publishers, during their editorial trip in March 2025.

In partnership with Thai VietJet, the team will feature Mercure Sapporo in both One2Fly inflight magazine and Lifestyle + Travel magazine — showcasing our hotel in a double-page article, a potential restaurant review, and online coverage across multiple platforms, scheduled for release in June.

As Sapporo welcomes direct flights from Thai VietJet, we're honored to represent Hokkaido's warmth and hospitality in this special media feature.

☆ DINING OPTIONS ☆

Bordeaux, the hotel's signature restaurant, delights with its mix of Japanese and French cuisines. Daytime, enjoy inspired dishes showcasing Hokkaido's freshest seasonal produce with a touch of Gallic flair while, evening time, linger over a fine meal complemented by wine with good company. This is also where the breakfast buffet is served—a great way to start the day with its varied offerings from European pastries and cheeses to Japanese favourites such as grilled fish and miso soup.

☆ WHY I'D RETURN ☆

With its location in the entertainment district of Susukino, the hotel offers immediate access to Sapporo's vibrant nightlife, shopping arcades and culinary hotspots. Whether strolling to nearby Nijo Market for a taste of fresh seafood or enjoying the splendour of Odori Park, I was never far from the city's top attractions. Excellent public transport links, including a subway station just minutes away, make exploring the wider Hokkaido region effortless.

Jalan Magazine × Mercure Sapporo

We are honored to be featured in Jalan, one of Japan's most trusted travel and lifestyle magazines.

This special Golden Week edition highlights Mercure Sapporo as a recommended destination, showcasing our popular annual Strawberry Fair and introducing our kid-friendly lounge menu, perfect for families visiting during the busy holiday season.

We're proud to share our seasonal charm and warm hospitality with Jalan readers across Japan.
