MY SON & HOI AN

My Son Holy Land is located in the heart of a beautiful valley and surrounded by high mountains ranges, My Son is around 70km from Da Nang city, considered to be one of the best-preserved Cham structures in Vietnam. This site is a Must-See for those people who are interested in architecture and ancient civilizations and is now one of five UNESCO World Heritage sites in Vietnam.

Hoi An Ancient Town is truly the most charming place to stop in central Vietnam. The preservation of 18th century architecture and way of life in the old town continues to lure wide eyed visitors. Once you arrive in Hoi An, you will wish you had planned to stay longer. December in 1999, Hoi An Ancient Town was officially listed as a World Heritage Site.

09:30 Visit My Son Holly land – restored in the 7th century by Sambhuvarman who rebuilt the temples with locally made bricks. Up to the 13th century, more than 70 similar temples were built, establishing My Son as a sanctuary of Hinduism in the Champa Kingdom. Enjoy Champa dance & music performance (upon availability).

11:30 After the first half of the tour, we will head to Hoi An for lunch time.

13:00 Take a walking tour around the well-preserved sections such as: Japanese Bridge, Chinese Assembly Hall, Historical and Cultural Museum, etc.

14:00 Shopping at your leisure.

15:00 Send-off guests to Da Nang city. Tour ends.

Hoi An Food Taste & Walking Tour

If there is one thing that draws visitors to Hoi An .. it's food! Our tour introduces you to the tastes of Hoi An from food stalls, to local restaurants, dining on red plastic chairs. Enjoy the old quarter and its twinkling lanterns and the riverside views of the city while sampling the range of culinary treats that have placed Hoi An as one of the world's most desirable food destinations.

Tour introduces you to specially selected dishes served on small or shared plates. We would like to experience a range of food and not feel weighted after one stop. We will discover some of the traditional dishes of Hoi An, including: Banh Mi- Cao Lau- a home cooked noodle dish steeped in a savory broth that's been described as part soup, part salad and uniquely Hoi An. Banh Xeo-no food tour in Hoi An is complete without this sizzling rice pancake delicacy.

We balance our longer stops with a few quick bites and tasty treats en route. Our tour ends in a quiet coffee shop with sweets and a few last words with your guides and fellow foodies. The tour will conclude at approximately 9:00pm.

CAM THANH PALM PARADISE (BASKET BOAT) & COOKING CLASS (shared tour)

The journey will take you through the beautiful and scenic countryside of Hoi An to Cam Thanh village . This trip will include: a visit to a local produce market; a boat trip along the beautiful Thu Bon River, with sights that include the island of Cam Nam and Duy Hai fishing village, as you pass under the majestic Cua Dai Bridge. This will then lead you onto a fun-filled Basket Boat ride through the Water Palm Village, followed by a cooking class.

Then the cooking begins, during our cooking class. The menu will include 4 local Vietnamese dishes:

SAMPLE MENU (can be a little bit different)

1. Rolled wet rice paper with minced pork and vegetables
2. Vietnamese pancake
3. Mango salad with seafood
4. Sautéed chicken with lemongrass and chili

The ingredients can be replaced in case of allergies or vegan diet
You may then relax and enjoy the sumptuous delights of your cooking creations, in the pleasant surroundings of our Restaurant.
