

Rendez - Vue

THE ROOFTOP BAR

An infusion of Westernized Jazz and Thai melodies that has been a popular staple in the Thai art scene, which combines the traditions and rituals of a meeting point for the Thai village elders and family leaders, has led us all to Rendez-Vue at this particular point in time.

Enriched with panoramic views over the lush green hills and fable-enriched Andaman Sea, Rendez-Vue exudes the element of relaxation that arises from the enjoyment of fine music along with friends or loved ones, and perfecting the occasion with a sumptuous mix of tapas just before heading off to your evening's dinner.

Rendez-Vue's inspiration aims to harness the traditions of past village tribes; were village residents would gather in one commonplace to share ideas and experiences.

THE BEGINNING OF AN ERA

Thailand was first introduced to Jazz in the 1940's, and by the 1970's Thailand had produced a total of 48 compositions, apart from the songs influenced by jazz.

It was during this time that most Thai musicians started to specialize in wind instruments, especially the saxophone and clarinet. From the mid 1940's young Thai musicians started to compose their own music with the first notable composition been Candlelight Blues. The trend of the newly introduced Jazz melodies continued to grow, getting international recognition through Thai musical collaborations with Preservation Hall Jazz Band, Benny Goodman, Stan Getz, Lionel Hampton and Benny Carter.

From the late 1940's through to the early 1970's Thailand was able to boast 49 compositions. Much of it had been jazz and swing, but they also composed Marches, Waltzes and Thai patriotic songs. The most popular compositions were Candlelight Blues, Love at Sundown and Falling Rain which were all composed in 1946. Majority of Thai Jazz musician's musical influences included Louis Armstrong, Sidney Bechet, Benny Carter and Johnny Hodges.

"What is music to you? What would you be without music?
Music is everything. Nature is music. The sea is music, the wind is music. The rain drumming on the roof and the storm raging in the sky are music. Music is the oldest entity. The scope of music is immense and infinite. It is the 'Esperanto' of the world".

-Duke Ellington

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

THAI WHITE SPIRIT

Around the world, each unique country produces a unique, distilled alcoholic beverage, indigenous in ingredients, that reflects the customs, tastes, and raw materials of that nation.

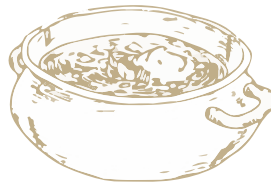

In Thailand, this spirit is referred to as 'Lao Khao', or Thai white spirit.

Lao Khao is sometimes mixed with various herbs to produce a medicinal drink called yadong (literally "fermented herb in alcohol"). Interestingly, some people claim that it helps them even regain their strength.

Rendez-vous Bar aims to capture the essence of one of Thailand's most renowned spirits by fusing this popular and homegrown drink with a modern and contemporary twist, creating a unique story within each beverage.

Vista Spice 260

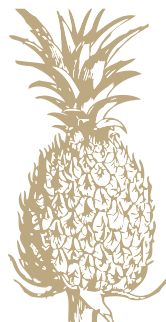

White rum, coconut liqueur, Thai chili pepper, young ginger, lime leaf, lemon grass, soda water

In Thailand most tourists are well aware of Tom Yam soup which is world renown. This cocktail is truly a formidable representation of Thai soup (Tom Yam) by getting all aromas from Thai herbs, mixed with white spirit (Rum).

Ya-Nat (Pineapple) 199

Thai white spirit infused with cinnamon, dark rum, coconut liqueur, pineapple juice, orange juice, grenadine syrup

Pineapple in Phuket is part of day to day life and part of the daily dietary routine of the people. Phuket pineapple is quite famous to all visitors from all corners of the world and is widely available throughout the various street markets.

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Po-Tong (Local bus) 199

Thai white spirit infused with ginger, brown sugar, lime wedges, fresh ginger, soda water

In yesteryears, Phuket bus drivers, after hours of daily work routines, would meet with other fellow drivers and drink and share the stories from their day to day schedules. Po-Tong tries to harness the essence of this day to day tradition in one soothing Thai spirit.

Roi-Rang (Delicious) 199

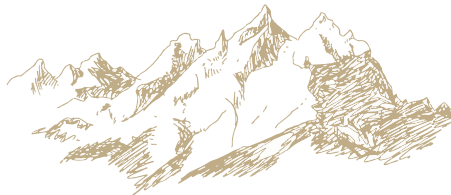

Thai white spirit infused with cardamom, triple sec, blue Curacao, lychee juice

An enchanting combination of alluring fruit flavours in every sip. Blue Curacao is added to exemplify the tropical surrounding environment. An absolutely delightful and delicious spirit that is aptly named; Roi-Rang (delicious) in southern Thai language.

Lang-Kwan (Behind mountain) 199

Thai white spirit infused with clove, triple sec, crème de banana, orange juice, grenadine syrup

An authentic representation of the resort's surrounding and awe inspiring beauty. The aroma of clove is also very much present as a representation of Thai southern culture, as many of the ingredients of this alluring spirit derive from various herbs that are common in this particular region of Thailand.
