

PHOKEETHRA GROUP

31ST EXHIBITION AT THE GALLERY

Being well-versed in the arts is a quintessential part of the French identity. Whether it is a boundary-pushing art exhibit or an exquisite musical performance that defines the local culture, we blend the heart of a place with the soul of our identity to give guests both an exciting and enriching experience.

Over the past years, Sofitel Phnom Penh Phokeethra has been actively participating in the Phnom Penh arts scene through regular exhibitions within the hotel, a way of expressing its active commitment to nurturing the arts in the Kingdom of Cambodia.

Théo Vallier is a French artist based in Phnom Penh since 2007, renowned for blending Khmer mythology with a bold, urban aesthetic. As one of the pioneers of Cambodia's street art movement, his work bridges tradition and modernity, breathing new life into cultural narratives through contemporary expression.

A co-creator of various street art events, Théo has been instrumental in promoting Khmer culture both within Cambodia and internationally. His creative practice spans multiple disciplines, including graphic design, street art, and silk-screen printing, as he continuously experiments with new techniques to expand his artistic vision.

Théo Vallier est un artiste français basé à Phnom Penh depuis 2007, reconnu pour son style unique mêlant mythologie khmère et esthétique urbaine. Pionnier du mouvement street art au Cambodge, il réinterprète les récits culturels avec une approche contemporaine, créant un dialogue entre tradition et modernité.

Co-créateur de plusieurs événements de street art, Théo joue un rôle clé dans la promotion de la culture khmère, aussi bien au Cambodge qu'à l'international. Son travail s'étend à divers médiums, du design graphique à la sérigraphie, en passant par le street art, explorant sans cesse de nouvelles techniques pour enrichir son expression artistique.
